

RURAL DELIVERY.

Good Work Done by Special Agent
A. B. Smith.

HE WILL ESTABLISH ROUTES

In West Virginia at Grafton, Fairmont and Morgantown—Also in Neighboring Pennsylvania Localities—Excellent Results Obtained by the System.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—Mr. A. B. Smith, special agent of the post-office department in charge of the rural delivery system, has been in Washington for a day or two on official business, but will leave to-night for New England. He will look after the service in New Hampshire and Connecticut, and then, probably, visit western sections. It is his purpose to shortly establish three routes in West Virginia—Grafton, Fairmont and Morgantown. He will also probably introduce the system at an early day at West Alexander, Claysville, Taylorstown, Canonsburg, Pinleyville, Charleroi, Monongahela City and West Brownsville, in Pennsylvania, and extend the system to points in West Virginia's western pan-handle. Mr. Smith is pleased with the results in all places where the system has been established. The effect has been to accommodate a large number of people, increase the postage receipts by augmenting opportunities for correspondence, and in many instances securing much more revenue than is required to maintain the service.

In one place, West Chester, Pa., Mr. Smith says one carrier's work pays the salaries of the entire force of carriers. In many instances the revenues for the first six months pay the expenses of the year. This is not, of course, clear gain over previous conditions, but there is an advance in the sales of stamps, by reason of increased opportunities, which is far in excess of expectations.

In many localities, it is understood, the new system has had the effect of abolishing star routes, at least for a portion of the territory represented by each, and this, the department finds, is an advantage, star routes but seldom if ever paying back to the government the amount expended for their maintenance. At Philippi, West Virginia, where the carriers have been at work but a month, the results in the number of pieces of mail handled and the impetus the system gives to the postal business, are most flattering.

Another enterprise which the department officials say suffers somewhat from the introduction of the rural mail delivery system, is the hack business, and the proprietors of several lines, in various localities have made vigorous opposition to the innovation. The carriers have permission to transport packages between points, and this encroaches upon the preserves of the hackman and excites the ill will of his friends. It is urged in behalf of the hack lines that the "new fad" is driving from the face of the earth old landmarks, which, by reason of long service and antiquity, should have perpetual right of way.

The population contributory to the old and the new, however, is standing manfully by that system, which serves them most acceptably and which, in the general opinion, presents the greater advantages. The privilege of having mail and parcels—the first with the expenditure of neither time nor money, the other at the usual cost—delivered at each farmhouse door, is popular from the start, and the officials say, the "fad" has come to stay.

Another innovation is soon to be added—if, indeed, it is not already introduced at points—which it is believed will do more than all else to render the system indispensable. The carriers on the rural routes are to be empowered to attend to the suburban money order business—that is, among the patrons of the office from which each carrier winds his daily way. A special form of money order blank is being prepared for this use, and the man who delivers and collects mail from the farmhouse will be equipped with the essentials for the transmission of money by mail, and armed with authority to receive the amounts, giving the regulation receipts, and will deliver the same to the postmaster. That functionality will do the rest.

Mr. Smith is not sure of his dates in the West Virginia sections named. He has other engagements which he cannot ignore—the establishment of routes where the preliminaries are already completed—but he said he would as soon as possible after meeting these appointments take up and dispose of the cases at Fairmont, Grafton and Morgantown, respectively.

Nothing to Crow Over.
BERLIN, June 4.—The general tone of the press in commenting upon the acquisition of the Caroline, Ladron and Pelew Islands from the Spanish government is in the direction of belittling the value of the concession. The Tagliche Rundschau, the leading organ of the German expansion policy, says: "Germany obtains the remnants which America, in her superior manner, despised. Their value is small, and there is no need of jagous transports."

Bought a Whole Town.
EL RENO, Ont., June 4.—Mountain View, Oklahoma, that was organized in 1894 broke another record to-day. There has existed a rival town a mile and a half west and it was deemed advisable to consolidate them. Okalade, the rival, was purchased outright for $12,000, and now is on wheels and strung out on the road to Mountain View. This is probably the first case of buying a whole town that the annals of the west record.

BELLAIRE HAPPENINGS.

Matters of Interest in the Metropolis of Belmont County

The local Republican committee have requested people in the central part of the city to decorate, hang their flags and bunting on the outer walls Thursday, to impress delegates and visitors that Bellaire is a good convention city. That is the day of the Republican city convention and there will be people from all parts of the county here. The local committee will fit the hall up in elegant shape and have everything in readiness for the delegates and friends from out of town.

There was a meeting in the office of James F. Anderson yesterday afternoon to promote an electric railway scheme, which has for its object the building of a line from this city out to McMahons creek and over the hill to St. Clairsville and perhaps farther. Only the preliminary talk is yet in evidence, but it may be pushed along.

William Lloyd, an old soldier and member of Spangler Post, G. A. R., died suddenly yesterday morning, of a paralytic stroke. He was sixty-eight years of age, had been sick for some time, but was recovering and on Thursday evening last insisted on walking out. The exertion proved too much for him and brought on paralysis.

Reports from various townships in the county came in yesterday to Hunter S. Armstrong, indicating his strength for prosecuting attorney and together they make a total very close to the nomination on first ballot, if not entirely enough for that. His friends are jubilant and confident.

A young son of Henry Landkrohn found a considerable sum of money on the street Saturday, which the owner can have by calling upon Henry Landkrohn. It is supposed to be the pay of some workman.

Yesterday was such a scorcher that few persons were more active than absolutely necessary. The thermometer at Mercer's corner was 90 in the shade at noon, and at 2 o'clock it was 95.

WELLSBURG.

Doings of People in the Brooke County Metropolis.

The June term of circuit court convened yesterday, Judge H. C. Hervey presiding. There were but two cases before the grand jury, and in both the jury failed to indict. A nolle prosequi was entered in state vs. Fletcher Green, indicted at a previous term on a felony charge. The will case of Schweitzer vs. Philbaum, was set for trial on June 15, and the Fair will case for June 19. Judgment was entered in favor of Clayton C. Bane against John Bane, for $1,441.50.

The council committees on ordinances and city property will have another meeting to-night to hear representatives of the rival applicants for the street car franchise. It is expected a decision will be arrived at and a report presented to council at the next meeting.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

The Features of the Money and Stock Markets.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Money on call steady at 2 1/2 to 3 per cent; last loan 2 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 3 1/4 to 4 per cent. Sterling exchange steady, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4 87 1/2 for demand and at $4 85 1/2 for sixty days; posted rates $4 86 1/2 for 60 days and $4 89; commercial bills $4 84 1/2 to $4 85 1/2. Silver certificates 60 1/2 to 61 1/2. Bar silver 60 1/2 to 61 1/2. Mexican dollars $4 1/2.

Government bonds easy. State bonds easy. Railroad bonds firm.

The professional traders on the stock exchange made industrious attempts all day to get into the current of speculation. But as a matter of fact there was almost no current to speak of, so that the board room traders found themselves drifting and floundering in stagnant waters. They changed sides several times in the dull market and the net changes on the day are consequently unimportant outside of a few of the specialties, though the general average of prices is notably lower.

The opening showed declines under the influence of the heaviness in the foreign market on account of the disturbed state of affairs in France. Sugar and a number of other specialties were attacked and the bears also had on their side a falling off in the east-bound freight tonnage from Chicago, a decrease in Rock Island's earnings for April and renewed strength in the wheat market. The manifest disposition of a bull party to take up a group of iron and steel stocks on account of the extraordinary prosperity in that trade served to check the decline. The large receipts of wheat at interior points offset the fears of damage and a series of good returns on recent traffic of various roads also helped to strengthen the stocks of those properties. The local stocks showed a disposition to advance, and it looked like the inauguration of a bull movement when the break in flour awakened eagerness and the making of comments on the long side was put a stop to. There was nothing notable in the trading thereafter. The extreme break in sugar was 7 points and the rally on covering caused some hardening in the general list. The recovery in sugar amounted to 3 1/2, the net loss being 2 1/2. National Steel, Pressed Steel Car and Tennessee Coal held their advance rather better than the other steel stocks. There was a spread in the American Smelting stock, the common weakening sharply while the preferred advanced over a point. The plethoric condition of the money market, the good railroad earnings reported, and the general activity and prosperous conditions in all general channels of trade are accepted as causing increased values to securities. But the sugar trade war and other possibilities of a sea-bell to highly speculative stocks as well as the manifest disposition to renew an unbridled speculation in the securities of the new and untried industrial combinations begets distrust and hesitation on the part of the capitalists.

Prices were much better maintained in the bond market than in the stock market, but business in that department also was small. Total sales par value, $1,950,000.

United States 4 1/2 coupon advanced 1/4 and the 3s and 4s 1/2 per cent in the bid price.

The total sales of stock to-day amounted to 322,000 shares.
